

Florida - Something for Everyone

Florida is the ideal vacation destination due to its diverse range of vacation options. Whether you are seeking a relaxing holiday soaking up the rays on the beach or if you prefer spending quality time with the family visiting amusement parks, Florida has something for everyone. Florida is known as the "Sunshine State" and is situated between the Atlantic Ocean and the Gulf of Mexico. Florida is well known for its 1200 miles of extensive coastline, sandy beaches and mild year-round climate. A Florida vacation home rental provides you with spacious and comfortable accommodations at reasonable prices that are just perfect for your Florida family vacation.

When planning a Florida vacation, you might consider seeking the aid of a travel agent. A travel agent arranges every aspect of your vacation and saves you the hassle of having to handle all of the essential vacation details on your own. Most travel agencies have several Florida vacation packages available to choose from, so it is easy to find a package that is appropriate for your budget and needs. Some of the most popular Florida vacation packages among tourists feature a Florida golfing vacation or a Disney World family vacation. It is important to make sure that the Florida vacation package you select includes a suitable Florida vacation house rental.

Central Florida is one of the most popular tourist destinations in Florida. Tourists from around the world come to visit Central Florida's world famous attractions such as Disney World, Sea World, Universal Studios Florida and the Kennedy Space Center. Guests of an Orlando vacation home rental or a Daytona beach vacation house rental are provided with easy access to these attractions. This region of Florida also features a variety of natural attractions including the St John's River and the Ocklawaha River and miles of trails and greenways. Tourists visiting Central Florida can enjoy plenty of outdoor sports activities including fishing, waterskiing, golfing, hiking, biking and horseback riding. For those who prefer spending time indoors, Central Florida is a shopper's paradise with plenty of discount and factory outlet stores as well as several upscale shopping malls.

Vacationers visiting the Daytona area might like to pay a visit to the nearby beautiful city of St Augustine. St Augustine is also known as the "Ancient City" and is the nation's oldest city and has looks and charms of a small Mediterranean city. It is located approximately 40 miles north of Daytona between North East and Central East Florida. When Spanish explorer Ponce De Leon set out to find "The Fountain of Youth" in 1513, he landed in the city known today as St Augustine. This quaint historical city boasts 42 miles of pristine beaches perfect for fishing, swimming and sailing. Guests of an oceanfront St Augustine vacation rental can also enjoy a stroll downtown to visit the unique boutiques, art galleries and numerous fine dining establishments. There are plenty of attractions for the entire family to enjoy which include "The Fountain of Youth", Potter's Wax Museum, Ripley's Believe It or Not! Museum and ghost tours. There are plenty of cozy bed and breakfast inns available within close proximity to these major attractions. These bed and breakfast inns provide you with all the comforts and amenities of home and allow you to get a sense of the history of the area. If you prefer to stay in more modern facilities, then a St Augustine condo vacation rental would be the perfect choice for you. There are a wide variety of St Augustine rentals available to suit every budget and taste. A Florida vacation is a unique and exciting experience that will leave you with memories you will cherish for a lifetime. With such a diversity of attractions, there is something to please everyone's tastes and desires on a Florida vacation.

About the Author

At Vacation Realty, we are proud to have David Harris as a writer and reviewer for Florida Vacation Homes and Traveler Destinations Including Holiday Rentals.

Source: <http://www.diyresource.com>