

Murcia, Spain - Something For Everyone

Are you planning on traveling to Murcia, Spain? It is a wonderful city in the beautiful region of Costa Blanca on the eastern coast. Not only is it a city full of things to see and do but its location is convenient to several other vacation hotspots along the Costa Blanca. The region enjoys year round pleasant weather and even in winter you can enjoy sunny days with mild weather. The city of Murcia is only 5 kilometers from the airport so your trip into town will be easy and short.

There are plenty of things to see and do in the region. So much in fact that you'll have a hard time doing everything you want to do especially if the weather in murcia is pleasant. There are plenty of outdoor activities including world class golf courses to fulfill your need for green. There are also plenty of hiking trails and, if you like more adventure, climbing.

The area is rich in history and culture so there a multitude of sights, museums, and galleries worth visiting. In between sights, check out the amazing shopping opportunities. There are many traditional wares that make great souvenirs for yourself or friends and family back home.

After a day of sightseeing or time enjoying your favorite outdoor activity you can enjoy a relaxing spa treatment and then head off to dinner. There is a number of dining options ranging from quaint cafes to five star restaurants. After satisfying your appetite, head off for a show or a drink at a local bar or enjoy some dancing at a nightclub.

To plan your vacation to Murcia use the internet to find the best deals and research travel itineraries. There are travel websites that offer (for a small fee) one stop shopping. They will list hotels and airlines that are available for your intended travel dates so you can compare prices and amenities. Most low cost airlines only offer their lowest fares on their own websites so it pays to shop around. Hotels usually offer discounts during the week and the off peak season (winter). If you're planning on staying longer than a few days then look into renting a service apartment. They are not only comfortable but they can save you money compared to a hotel, especially if you are traveling with a large group.

Murcia and the Costa Blanca will surely be a vacation that you'll enjoy and remember for years to come. Take plenty of pictures!
